Important Notice TO Ship Owners.

AMERICAN LLOYDS OFFICE,
Burlin Slip, New York,
Jan. 31, 1871.

The Register for 1871 is now ready. The January Supplements will contain the introduction to the history of the "Register." In order to supply the demand for the Exposition, an extra edition will be printed and furnished gratuitously to all parties in possession of a book called the "Record," or a book called the "American Lloyds Universal."
HARTSHORN & KING.

The American Lloyds Register, being the acknowledged standard of American surveys of shipping, approved by underwriters generally, and adopted by the Peruvian Government as a standard for the selection of ships to carry Guano, also by the California Board of Underwriters and the West India Lloyds at Havana, &c., &c., it is important to owners to have their vessels surveyed and classed in its "Register." Having competent surveyors throughout the State of Maine, I am prepared to order or make surveys personally, of those apply, and to grant certificates under the "Standard Rules" issued by the Board. Also parties can be supplied with copies of the American Lloyds Register, for 1871, by sending their orders to me at the National Insurance rooms, Bangor.

FRENCH FIRE-PROOF LAMP CHIMNEYS,

These chimneys, which are now for the first time offered to the public, possess all the essentials of a heat-resisting Chimney. They are well made, of a superior quality of glass, each one finished smoothly at the bottom, and being carefully annealed or tempered, will not break from the most intense heat of a lamp flame.

A trial of their merits will convince the consumer that, although costing a trifle more than the ordinary class of Chimneys in use, they will prove a source of much economy in the use of Kerosene, a saving of untold trouble and annoyance, and a preventative of many accidents hitherto resulting from the breakage of Chimneys upon burning Lamps.

Dental Care.

I wish to say a word to the Gentlemen and Ladies of Bangor and vicinity. As parents you would do more for your children than for yourselves. A gentleman in Bangor, who is fifty years old, was in my office in April and said that he would give me one hundred dollars if I would save one tooth in his mouth without extracting it. But he was too late. If a man will thus value one tooth, what should he do for his children.

Now if you cannot save your own, you can save the teeth of your children. Almost every day some father or mother will come to the office with some dear child to have me extract some aching tooth. I examine the mouth and find that the painful tooth is not a temporary but a permanent one. The parent is surprised; you are wrong, she has never had but one tooth there; she will certainly have a permanent tooth when this one is out of the way.

A very large proportion of our patrons, have never known, or have forgotten, that in our first set we have but twenty teeth. And that all teeth that grow back of the twenty are permanent ones, thirty-two in all. I have extracted within the past year, seven permanent teeth for one little girl who was not eleven years old. Will you parents suffer your children to suffer for their life time by your neglect? If by neglect you have lost your natural teeth, a good editor will tell you where to go for the best artificial ones. Hundreds of people in Bangor and vicinity will endorse by their own experience all that he has said in his paper.

DR. J. K. LINCOLN.—Though we have not the pleasure of a personal acquaintance with the gentleman, yet we have reason to believe that he is a most skilful practitioner of the dental art. At least, he has made one old face in our house look young again, and has fitted, by art, a pair of jaws to masticate the food again which dame nature thought to deprive of this privilege a little too soon. We think the work and composition of the two full sets of teeth he has inserted cannot be exceled anywhere.—Rural Intelligencer.

My price now is $50 for a whole set of the best artificial teeth, $25 for a half set.

A FIRST CLASS WORKMAN to build 25 light sleighs.

july7 B. N. THOMS & SON.

A Safe & Profitable INVESTMENT.

First Mortgage Bonds,

To a limited amount, upon a railroad which is well located for business, and which has been already largely constructed with the funds of its Stockholders, cannot be otherwise than safe. This security is increased if the Constructing Company is composed of men of high character, and of ample means for successfully carrying through any work that they undertake.

THE

NEW ORLEANS, MOBILE & TEXAS RAILROAD COMPANY

Offer for sale a bond which combines these advantages to an unusual degree. The route lies between Mobile, Alabama, and Houston, Texas—passing through New Orleans, the New York of the South. Of the whole line of 475 miles, about two-thirds are already built, and the Stockholders have expended nearly TEN MILLION DOLLARS in the work. The bonds now offered are secured by a mortgage upon all that part of the line west of New Orleans, which has an enormous traffic assured to it from the start, this being the only rail connection by which the cotton, corn, cattle and other productions of Texas can reach New Orleans.

So important is this road considered to Louisiana, that the State has made very liberal grants in aid of the enterprise, by direct donations, by endorsement of second mortgage bonds, and by subscriptions to the stock of the Company, amounting in all to over eight million dollars.

The First Mortgage

Eight Per cent. Bonds

Now offered, are limited in amount to $12,500 per mile, and are for $1,000 or £200 each, interest payable January and July, at the rate of 8 per cent. Currency or 7 per cent. Gold, at the option of the holder. Bonds registered if desired.

Among the leading Stockholders of the Company are Hon. ED. Morgan, Ex-Governor and Ex-U. S. Senator; Hon. John A. Griswold, Ex-Lieutenant-Governor, Troy, N. Y.; Hon. Oakes Ames, M. C., Massachusetts; Messrs. Morton Bliss & Co., L. Von Hoffman & Co., J. & W. Seligman & Co., Harrison Durkee, and others, of New York; Benjamin E. Bates, President Bank of Commerce, Franklin Havens, President Merchants' Bank, Boston, and others, also well known.

The above statement of facts proves the SAFETY of these Bonds. Their PROFIT is equally manifest upon examination. They are sold for the present at 90, and accrued interest from July 1st. At this price they afford a certain income for forty-five years, of nearly nine per cent. upon their cost. One thousand dollars invested in these eight per cent bonds will give the purchaser more than seventy-seven per cent. greater annual interest than the same amount invested in the new Government five Per Cents, while holders of Government Sixes will find a decided profit in selling them at present high prices, and re-investing in the New Orleans, Mobile and Texas Bonds.

Subscriptions will be received in Bangor by

P. M. BLAKE, Banker, and in Bucksport by

EDWARD SWAZEY,
At Bucksport National Bank.

The total expenses of the Mount Cenis Tunnel amount to $13,000,000; of these $4,000,000 are to be contributed by the Victor Emanuel Railway, or Railway of Northern Italy. This sum is to be paid on or before the opening of the tunnel. The French government was to pay 3,800,000 if the work was accomplished within twenty years, reckoning from 1862. But if the work was accomplished at an earlier date, France bound herself to pay $100,000 for every year gained upon the stipulated time. As there has been eleven years thus gained, France will have to pay $1,100,000 besides the original stipulation. She has besides to pay five per cent. interest on the money due for the work as it proceeded from year to year. Thus Italy will pay something less than $4,000,000.

WEDNESDAY SEPTEMBER 20 1871

THE NEW DEPARTURE A FAILURE

We can imagine the satisfaction with which the uncompromising Bourbons as A B [illegible] and the Bangor Democrat charge the recent defeats of the Democracy to the attempt to inaugurate a "new departure."—On the principle that a lie stubbornly adhered to is more cogent than the truth wavering, they hold that a bad policy endorsed by the party is better than no policy at all and [illegible] the recent elections would seem [illegible] the impressions of the spirit of the party. Republicans had every reason to feel gratified that these principles were so firmly established that their opponents discovered their only hope of political salvation in [illegible] the principal achievements of the party. But how Democrats could expect the public to follow a faction which accepted the established public policy only on compulsion, and with the evident desire to repudiate it if successful, is one of the strangest of political hallucinations. If the logical results of Republican principles had not received a popular endorsement the Democrats would never have pretended acquiescence, and when this was acknowledged by the bitter opponents of every liberal measure it was absurd to expect the people to have faith in entrusting these reluctant accepters of the situation with the administration of a policy which they had fought against until they were forced to recant to save themselves from political annihilation. The elections which have recently occurred have proved as might have been expected that the forced endorsement of the Democracy has strengthened the Republican party while disheartening and dividing our opponents. "The old guard" take no interest in maintaining principles which have been fought desperately and the progressive portion of the party have only the choice of being [illegible] down in every contest by the Bunker element, or making a departure practically by joining the Republican party.

The apathy prevailing among the reconstructed is demonstrated by the returns from this county where the demoralizing influence of the Augusta platform has caused a large [illegible] Democratic vote. Here we have the [illegible] type of Democracy, and the returns show that the veterans who habitually go to the polls without question have this year refused to sanction the avowed departure from old faith and have staid at home rather than lend [illegible] anything suspected of a leaning towards Republicanism. This case is a fair example of the result of Vallandigham's strategy throughout the country. It excited the ambition of the Young Democracy, and by their superior activity has been pushed through the State Conventions, but the old war horses have made the power of their displeasure felt at the polls and are [illegible] the new departure [illegible] a failure.

From a Republican point of view this Ohio movement has been most advantageous. It has given the policy of our party the endorsement of its [illegible] demonstrated the utter [illegible] of [illegible] the Democracy and by [illegible] that party again [illegible] itself has [illegible] this year [illegible] Republican victory in the [illegible] The Democratic party [illegible] policy and the [illegible] its ranks [illegible] widening. The new departure has proved disastrous and [illegible] Democratic [illegible] New York the old craft is giving out [illegible] after breaking up [illegible] elsewhere follow the lead of [illegible] party will be one that has [illegible]

THE TAMMANY WAR

A despatch from New York states that General McC[illegible], in an interview on Monday evening at his residence near Orange N J, declared that soon after he received the letter from Mayor Hall offering him the position of Comptroller he declined the office [illegible] the Mayor and [illegible] the Mayor's offer [illegible] written letter [illegible] accept the [illegible] should [illegible] little [illegible] explanation [illegible] that [illegible] in the integrity of any who has [illegible] any way connected with the city finances. He thought the appointment of Green should satisfy all except those [illegible] by [illegible] reprehensible partizan motives. He [illegible] the position had been offered him a week ago he might have accepted it, if [illegible] the most prominent men of [illegible] parties.

George A Lo[illegible] to be a hanger on around the Mayor's office was arrested last Wednesday [illegible] allowed to communicate with him [illegible] said of Mr [illegible] that he believed Antibo to be the man who stole the vouchers and [illegible] the Ring' as a [illegible] resign.

A secret meeting of Democrats opposed to Tammany Hall was held at the Apollo Hall Monday night, at which about 100 prominent Democrats were present. It was the general impression that a trap had been laid by Tammany to catch the reformers and on the passage of a vote to appoint a packed committee, R B Roosevelt and his friends left the Hall. All was quiet at the City Hall during Tuesday morning. The Mayor had [illegible] office at 10 A M [illegible] with members of the [illegible] Committee during the forenoon. He gave orders for the immediate preparation of a schedule of all officers of the Departments with the dates of appointment, their salaries and the nature of the duty performed by each, and prepared a circular to the officers of the Comptroller's Department relative to their duties.

On Tuesday at the meeting of the Citizens Committee forty members were present and adopted resolutions expressing entire confidence in Andrew H Green as Deputy Comptroller, congratulating the citizens on the [illegible] of an honest and intelligent administration of the city finances, inviting them to give him their moral support, and promising that the Committee will render him all the aid in their power.

Acting Comptroller Green issued a notice that the interest on bonds and stocks of the corporation falling due in November, will be paid by the City Chamberlain. It is not deemed probable that application will be made at once for either an injunction restraining Connolly from exercising the functions of his office, or for a writ of quo warranto for him to show by what right he holds the office and why he should not vacate it. The counsel acting in opposition to Connolly are not yet prepared to take either of the steps mentioned, but say they do not know how soon the exigency may arise to cause them to take one or both of the courses mentioned.

Charles O'Connor in his legal opinion, quotes from the new city charter to show that the appointment of Green as Deputy, with all the powers of the Comptroller, by Connolly is in strict accordance with the law, and that the statute confers no right of removal upon the Mayor, either expressly or by implication.

Walter Rogers, Jr., injured by jumping from the cars at Hudson, N Y, on Monday, has since died.

THE SITUATION IN NEW YORK. The N Y Times thus explains the strange developments in that city during the past few days.

The position of affairs is simply this. Sweeny, Hall and Tweed agreed on Saturday to patch up their own differences, and "smash" Connolly. Connolly declined to be "smashed" and said, in effect, "if I must go to the State's Prison, you three shall go with me, for you are all in the same mess as myself." Accordingly, Connolly goes to an honest Democrat—"poor old Havemeyer," as the World is pleased to call him—and asked him for his advice. Mr Havemeyer, thereupon, recommends him to go to another honest Democrat Mr Andrew H Green—"the accomplice after the fact," and put all the Controller's papers and books in his possession. Mr Green has doubtless as little thought of saving Connolly as he has of bringing the editor of the World to a sense of decency and honor—he knows, as we all know except the Ring journals, that no power on earth can save any one of these four men. They must all go. We hope and expect that criminal proceedings will be commenced against them almost immediately. If Mr Andrew H Green can get a fair inspection of all the papers in Connolly's office, the guilt of Hall Tweed and Sweeny will be fully brought home to them, and Connolly will not escape. He is perfectly well aware of that. The World now has the coolness to admit that "gigantic frauds" have been committed, after roundly denying the whole affair for weeks past. But it says that Connolly is alone responsible for the frauds. The documents in the Controller's office will drive it from this its last stand point. We may venture to ask our readers to believe that we do not speak without knowledge or information. The guilt of all the Four can be conclusively brought home to them by the papers now in the possession of Andrew H Green. Hall and Sweeny will try and move to get these papers away from Mr Green.

The N Y Evening Mail, whose editor is a prominent member of the Citizens Committee says of the injunction upon the Tammany ring:

One thing at least is settled. The day of the thieves has gone, and their inroads on the city treasury have ceased. We can now address ourselves to the task of purging all the departments of the city government, and of reconstructing one that will represent our honest citizens, with a feeling of assured confidence. How near we were to the gravest perils will not be known until the present crisis is well over. Neither the newspapers nor public speeches have brought before the community all the causes for alarm that existed before Judge Barnard's decision was rendered. We can now only say that it has relieved us from imminent danger, not only of a financial panic which might have spread to all parts of the country, but from wild scenes in our streets, whose termination the stoutest-hearted men might shrink from contemplating.

It is of infinite value, in all respects, that the high handed robberies that have disgraced our city have been checked by the judiciary and through the usual processes of law, and not through a resort to revolutionary methods. The American people have been taught to look to the courts as the last resort for redress against the wrongs perpetrated or allowed by the other departments of their government. This confidence has of late years been often deceived, but, on the whole, our judges have done their duty and have kept above the arena of corrupt politics. The fact that a New York judge, in full political sympathy with the ring officials, and believed to be allied with them, has boldly cut loose from all political and personal associations, rendered strict and exact justice, and struck a death blow at the ring, will do much to establish the old popular faith in the judiciary.

The Boston Advertiser and Journal of Tuesday, published the following statement at the head of their editorial columns:

The question is often asked "Where are the two Massachusetts Senators and what are their opinions on the present crisis in Massachusetts? Nobody knowing them has doubted, but we are able to set this matter at rest by their authority. We have seen Senator Sumner and Senator Wilson personally, and are authorized by them to say that they deeply regret and deplore the extraordinary canvass which General Butler has precipitated upon the Commonwealth, and especially the attacks which he has volunteered against the existing State government and the Republican party of Massachusetts, and that in their opinion his nomination as Governor would be hostile to the best interests of the Commonwealth and of the Republican party."

THE ANGLO AMERICAN MIXED COMMISSION. The United States and British mixed commission under the Treaty of Washington for the examination and decision of claims of both countries, other than those known as the "Alabama claims," will hold their first meeting in Washington, next Monday. Russell Gurney, Recorder of London, is Commissioner on the part of Great Britain, Henry Howard is agent, and James Carlisle Esq of Washington is counsel for the British claimants. James G Frazer of Indiana is Commissioner on the part of the United States, and Robert S Hale of New York, agent and counsellor for the American claimants. The Commissioners will do nothing more on the first day of meeting than to submit their credentials and make and subscribe to solemn declarations that they will carefully examine and decide to the best of their judgment and according to justice and equity all such claims as shall be laid before them, and also to take measures for framing rules by which their action is to be governed. Judge Frazer has written a note saying he will be present Monday, and Recorder Gurney is expected to reach New York from London on Wednesday. Carlisle has been advising counsel for the British Legation during the last fifteen years.

The Kennebec Journal publishes the complete returns of the State election, with the exception of the vote in twenty-two small towns and plantations, which have not been heard from. The vote for Governor foots up as follows:

Total vote,	105,552
Perham's vote,	58,187
Kimball's vote,	47,365
Perham's majority,	10,822

The total vote of the State is 5,751 higher than last year, and Perham's majority is 2585 more this year than last. The full returns will slightly increase the majority.

The Senate consists of 25 Republicans and 5 Democrats and there is one vacancy to which the Legislature is compelled to choose a Democrat, Messrs Wm A Thompson of Newfield, and Ichabod Cole of Eliot being the constitutional candidates.

The House consists of 113 Republicans and 38 Democrats, counting Keegan of Aroostook among the latter. The House, therefore, stands the same as last year.

NEW YORK CITY POLITICS. The Greeley Republicans held Senatorial conventions in several of the New York city districts Monday night. Enoch L Fancher was nominated in the 7th, Thomas E Stewart in the 5th, and J N Hageman in the 8th district. The Grant wing of the city Republicans met in several Assembly districts the same evening and elected delegates to the Syracuse Convention, among whom were James H Booth, E D Morgan, Theodore Dwight, Frederick Conkling, Jackson Schultz and John Russell Young. There was a disturbance between the Darling and anti-Darling factions in the 20th Assembly District, and the police were obliged to interfere.

DESPERATE AFFRAY AT THE NEVADA STATE PRISON. The following particulars of the escape of the convicts from the State Prison at Carson, Nevada, have been received:—

Volney E Robbins was locking up the prisoners, when one of them knocked him down with a bottle and dragged him into a cell just as the other prisoners rushed upon him. The band then cut a hole through the wall into the apartment occupied by the wife and daughter of Lieutenant-Governor Denver, and entered before any alarm was given. The prisoners were all armed with sling shots and steel bars. Denver met them and fired his revolver at Frank Clifford, a horse thief, serving a term of 10 years, and who appeared to be the leader of the gang. Clifford was hit and stunned, but the Lieut. Governor was soon knocked down, his skull fractured and shot through the hip with his own revolver, by Robert Dedman, a prisoner under sentence for life. Alonzo Bearls was with Denver, and as the latter fell, seized a chair and fought like a tiger, knocking down five prisoners, one of them over the balustrades and down stairs. His heroic conduct saved the life of Lieut. Governor Denver. Evarts was himself eventually knocked down and left for dead, but proved to be only slightly injured. Wounded as he was, Clifford made his way down stairs and followed the crowd, who at once seized the armory of the prison office, clothing, ammunition &c. Mat. Pixley, one of the proprietors of the Warm Springs Hotel, hearing the firing, seized a six-shooter and in company with a man named Perassish, rushed into the prison-yard to assist the officers. The convicts were still inside the guard room, firing through the main door of the building, and Perassish and Pixley marched up to a window and commenced firing at the prisoners inside, when Charles Jones, under sentence of ten years, fired at them through the window and struck Pixley just below the left eye, passing through the head, killing him instantly. Twenty-nine prisoners made their escape, carrying off their wounded. The guards were all wounded seriously.

POLITICAL AND PERSONAL

President Grant and family were in Cincinnati Monday night.

A Lowell dispatch says that city will probably send a full Butler delegation of 22 to the State Convention, the Butler men being organized and their opponents without organization.

Capt. L H Partridge, of the steamship City of Houston, has published a card in New York denying the charge that he was intoxicated during the late perilous voyage on that steamer, when off the coast of Florida. He declares the whole story a base falsehood.

The Boston Journal says:

Mr Linus M Child, a member of the Suffolk Bar denounces the editors of the Boston newspapers "as vultures." Our profane young friend must look out for the swoop of their wings.

The New York World is entitled to the credit of having discovered the most unique if not the most convincing reason yet adduced to account for the Democratic defeat in Maine, viz: that it is due to the "gibberings of a political ghost" away out in Georgia, meaning, of course, Alexander H Stephens. This plaint is added:

"The evil one by one goose-quill, wandering without competent guidance over paper in a newspaper office at the South, outweighs all the good that can be done by fifty thousand intelligent citizens of Maine striving to rid themselves of oppressive taxation."

How sad! Now let us hear from A. H. S.

RAILWAY—REVENUE CASE. David Dudley Field, on Tuesday, made argument before Commissioner Douglass in favor of the Erie Railway Company, for the refunding and abatement of certain taxes assessed against that company. The amount involved is over $100,000. He claims that the money raised by the sale of bonds is not liable to taxation, not being the earnings of the road. The Commissioner reserved his decision.

Six Cord Combed Sea Island

Trade C. S. I. Mark

Spool Thread

THE BEST SPOOL COTTON

For Hand and Machine Sewing, and has been thoroughly introduced in certain localities and is being introduced everywhere. It possesses four great requisites for a perfect Thread, viz SMOOTHNESS, ELASTICITY, UNIFORMITY OF TWIST, GREAT STRENGTH.

These results are secured by a liberal use of SEA ISLAND COTTON, and the expensive process of Combing, whereby the short fibres of Cotton are removed, and by important improvements in machinery, some of which are patented and used exclusively by the Williston Mills who were also the first to introduce cotton combers in this country. With this Thread the operator on the sewing machine can accomplish more and better work than with the ordinary article.

In many instances it is being substituted for Silk and Linen with entire satisfaction to the consumer. We have a little machine to test the strength of Thread, and all who will call can see that the Williston Thread has greater strength than any other in use.

WALKER'S

IMPROVED

PORTABLE RANGE.

THE NEW RANGE excels anything of the kind ever offered for sale. It requires much less space than ordinary cooking stoves, and is more economical. It will heat as much water as a range set in masonry.

The HOT CLOSET retains the heat usually radiated from the bottom, which is, during the summer months WORSE THAN WASTED, thereby not only SAVING FUEL, but making the KITCHEN MORE COMFORTABLE, besides furnishing an admirable place for warming and keeping food warm, warming plates, &c. The door can be removed during cold weather to allow the heat to escape into the kitchen.

Coals are separated from the ashes in the SIFTING CHAMBER.

THE FOLDING SHELF, together with other improvements referred to, make it all we claim for it, viz THE MOST DESIRABLE COOKING APPARATUS TO BE FOUND ANYWHERE.

There are nearly all kinds of fruit trees and shrubbery on the lot, and a nice flower garden beside the house. It is seldom that such a chance is offered to persons wishing to buy a nice house.

It must be sold immediately. For particulars inquire at No. 4, Broad Street, Bangor.

DOMESTIC NEWS.

THE TAMMANY MUDDLE.

NEW YORK, Sept 19.

The municipal situation was decidedly more peaceful this afternoon, and the prospect of an adjustment of at least a temporary quarrel between Hall and Connolly, is encouraging. Mayor Hall received to-day a letter from Gen'l McClellan formally declining the office of Comptroller, and an opinion from Richard O'Gorman advising him, from considerations of expediency and sound policy, to give up his opposition to Connolly, waiving whatever legal and technical powers he may have in the matter; and it is reported this evening on good authority, that he will accept the situation and withdraw his notice to the heads of departments and recognize Green as Deputy Comptroller.

O'Gorman in his opinion says that litigation if once begun, would be protracted, tedious and damaging to the credit of the city; reminds the Mayor that he has already exhausted every legal expedient to procure the accession of a new Comptroller, even at the risk of some apparent inconsistency, and that long before the courts would determine the controversy, the whole matter might be settled by the Legislature.

Hall and Sweeney, with their friends, were in consultation this afternoon, and the current of opinion and advice was very strong in favor of accepting O'Connor's and O'Gorman's opinions and McClellan's letter as conclusive.

It is reported that Connolly's resignation addressed to the Mayor is now in the hands of ex-Mayor Havemeyer.

LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS

—Forty-six vessels arrived at this port yesterday.

—The Police Court was destitute of an item yesterday.

—The trees are exchanging their summer suits of green for garments of warmer hues.

—The students of the State College will attend the Farmers' Convention at Lincoln this week.

—The cool weather has driven the flies indoors, and the troublesome little wretches were never more plenty.

—Mr. Geo. W. Spratt of this city shows two squashes upon a single stem. They were raised in his garden on the Veazie road.

—An item in Monday's Lewiston Journal concerning the attack on Mr. Josselyn of Charleston, is very appropriately headed "Daring Robbery."

—Mr. D. W. Sylvester has in his garden in Stetson, a crab-apple tree on which there are now fully ripened fruit and at the same time blossoms.

—Quite a quantity of stock is now being shipped from some parts of this State to Vermont, where it finds a ready sale among the farming community at medium and lowest prices.

—M. E. A. Buck has been appointed Deputy Collector of Customs at Mobile, Alabama. Mr. Buck was a Member of Congress from that State. He went South from Foxcroft, and is a graduate of Waterville College.

—The East Kennebec Musical Association are to hold their annual convention at China village, commencing on Tuesday, Oct. 3d, and continuing four days, under the direction of Mr. F. S. Davenport of this city.

—Mr. M. H. Andrews has concluded to spend the winter in Bangor, and has organized an orchestra of twelve pieces, which promises to excel any organization of the kind ever before formed in this city.

—A little misunderstanding over a very small affair led to some loud talk and lively gestures in Pickering Square yesterday afternoon, but each party to the quarrel was careful not to hit the other, no one was hurt, and peace was restored.

—S. J. Worcester, who shot and wounded Frank Ladd in Dexter, last week, was arraigned before Trial Justice E. McCrillis, and was bound over for trial at the Supreme Judicial Court in the sum of $1,000. Ladd will recover, says our informant.

—The dwelling house and stable in Montville owned and occupied by Ephraim Foster, were completely destroyed by fire, Saturday morning. The family lost most of their clothing and furniture. Cause of the fire unknown; loss about $2000.

—We hear that Mrs. N. Lunt of Orono, met with a quite a severe accident on Monday afternoon. While going down stairs her foot tripped and she fell and broke her arm, and bruised her face and chest considerably. Having received no internal injuries, her friends hope for a full recovery in due time.

—It would have rejoiced the hearts of the greater portion of the audience in Norombega Hall last evening, to have seen those unmannerly people who kept up a loud conversation during the best portions of the play, arrested and taken out of the Hall. If those beings that made the disturbance do not know better, they should be taught, and a policeman should be the instructor.

AGED PERSONS. There are some fifty persons in Orrington aged 70 years and upwards, and the population of the town is only 1950. In one small neighborhood there are eight persons over 70, five of whom accidentally met at a neighbor's house last summer. Within a space of three miles four persons died last summer, all of whom were over 80.

—A regular Rip Van Winkle has come to light in the person of one David Hilliard, who has, we are told, been living somewhere in this section of the State. He disappeared from Pittsfield, Mass., fifty years ago, leaving no trace, and never informed his friends of his whereabouts until a few days ago, when he returned to his native place. A little child that he left is now a grandmother.

PROLIFIC. A firm on Broad street filled an order from a Boston firm, early last spring, for a barrel of nice yellow-eyed beans for planting; they were wanted for a farmer in the western part of New York State. One of the firm being in Boston a few days ago, was shown 14 barrels of nice yellow-eyed beans, which the farmer wrote he had raised from the one barrel, saving enough back for his family use, and for seed next spring.

THE COUNTY FAIR.—The prospect is that if the weather is favorable the Penobscot Agricultural Society's annual exhibition and fair commencing to-day, will fully equal that of any previous year. A large number of horses have been entered for the Society's premiums and the exhibition of neat stock, sheep, swine, &c., will be excellent. We hope that our merchants, traders and manufacturers will contribute as liberally to the exhibition as we feel certain our horticulturists and agriculturalists will.

—Dr. A. C. Hamlin of this city, has presented to Bates College (Lewiston) a large and valuable collection of minerals. It consists of some sixty specimens, many of which are rare foreign varieties, including "Diamond earth" and Topaz from Brazil; Moss Agate, Ruby and Syrian Garnet, from India; Essonite and Moonstone from Ceylon; Corundum, from Malabar and Smyrna; and Pyrope from Bohemia; while the remainder are choice specimens from the most interesting American localities.

MOOSEHEAD. A gentleman who has been on a visit to Moosehead Lake thus discourses: The pleasure season at this favorite place of resort is drawing to a close. A number of anglers still remain to work out the trouting season, which closes by statue the 30th day of the present month. The season has been gay and profitable to all seeking for health or pleasure. Fine boats, fine fishing, fine hunting and good accommodations constitute the bill of fare. Trouting is excellent, and large numbers have been taken by amateur Waltons, from New York, Boston and other localities. Mitchell of the Eveleth House, whose circumference without is no larger than his heart within, has reaped a good harvest both of greenbacks and compliments. He tells the startling story that a laker was taken out of Wilson's pond a few days since, that weighed 280 pounds! The surprise will somewhat abate when it is known that this whale was Mitchell himself, who tumbled over the stern of a small boat, and was fished up by a party of gentlemen and ladies without the use of hook, line, bob or sinker.

"PINK AND WHITE TYRANNY."—Norombega Hall was well filled last evening to see Miss Kate Reignolds in her dramatization of Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe's last novel—"Pink and White Tyranny." The drama is well arranged, giving all the best points of the story in the most effective manner, and is endorsed by Mrs. Stowe herself. Those who have read the book will of course remember that it is designed to show the wickedness and folly of fashionable life, and the severity and sorrow of the retribution which surely follows its votaries.

The character of Lillie Ellis, afterwards the wife of John Seymour, was finely taken by Miss Reignolds—the coquetry at Saratoga, the frivolity at Springdale, (the Seymour's country home,) the sin at New York, and her expiation and death being forcibly portrayed. The other parts were well performed, particularly that of noble John Seymour by that sterling actor Mr. E. W. Beattie. Mr. Burns did well as Dick Follingsbee, the man of the world. Miss Emma Reignolds as Rose Ferguson, Miss Emma Hall as Grace Seymour, and Mrs. E. M. Leslie as Mrs. Follingsbee, the fashionable woman, were excellent. The evening's performance closed with a farce, in which Mr. Burns appeared to great advantage.

This evening the company will appear in a dramatization of Charles Reade's last and most popular novel—"A Terrible Temptation," Miss Reignolds taking the role of Bella Bruce, afterwards Lady Bassett.

NEW STEAMER.—Messrs. Thoms and Dole, of the Committee on the Fire Department, accompanied Chief Engineer Low and Mr. Mansfield, engineer of the steamers, to Manchester, N. H., Monday, to witness the testing of the new steam fire engine which has been building at the Amoskeag Works for this city. Capt. Low informs us that the steamer is a very fine piece of work. It is named "Liberty, No. 4," and weighs 4,300 pounds. In the trial Monday, it drew water from a depth of 25 feet, and played a heavy stream in just 4½ minutes from the lighting of the fire under the boiler. Mr. Mansfield was left to take charge of transporting the steamer to this city, where it will arrive in a day or two. We shall give a detailed description on its arrival here.

AN UNEXPECTED PASSENGER.—Although there is no stopping place for the Sanford steamers between Boston and Rockland, a new passenger made her appearance on the Katahdin on her last trip down, before reaching the last-named port. The new-comer was then and there named Kate, (in honor of the steamer,) and with her mother was landed at Belfast—both "well as could be expected."—Capt Rich informed the mother that little Kate should always be welcome on board his boat. The ladies on the steamer were very kind and rendered every assistance, says our informant.

Y. M. C. A. The sixth annual convention of the Young Men's Christian Association of this State will be held at Biddeford on Tuesday and Wednesday of next week. All persons attending as delegates and clergymen, will be provided with homes during the session by communicating by letter with T. H. Hubbard, Cor. Sec. Biddeford Y. M. C. A. Arrangements have been made with the several railroad and steamboat lines to return delegates free, who have paid full fare one way. All who feel interested in the work of Y. M. C. A., and especially pastors of churches throughout the State, are cordially invited to be present and take part in the deliberations of the convention.

FATAL ACCIDENT.

A LAD FALLS FROM THE MAST-HEAD OF A SCHOONER AND IS KILLED—A WARNING TO ADVENTUROUS BOYS.

About one o'clock yesterday afternoon a boy about 15 years of age, named James Mountain, who was climbing about the rigging of the schooner Mary Rice, lying near McGilvery & Co's marine railway in Brewer, went to the mast-head in a fit of fool-hardiness. Here his presence of mind deserted him, he became giddy, and uttering a shrill cry for help, he fell to the deck many feet below. Strange to say, on striking the deck, he bounced up like a rubber-ball, and went over the rail into the water. He was rescued immediately by the workmen, and taken to his mother's house on Parker street, in this city, where the best medical aid was summoned, but in vain. His skull was fractured, several of his ribs crushed in, and both legs broken. Besides these, he suffered severe internal injuries, and he lived but about two hours—dying at 3 p. m. He was an only child, and his loss is most deeply felt by his distressed parents.

This, we hope, may be a warning to the venturesome boys who are risking their lives by constantly climbing about the rigging of vessels in the river and stream.

THE JOSSELYN ROBBERY.

CAPTURE OF SMITH, THE ROBBER—HE MAKES A FULL CONFESSION—RECOVERY OF THE MONEY AND PAPERS—MR. JOSSELYN'S CONDITION.

The reward of $100 offered for the apprehension of Joseph Smith, of Veazie, the young highwayman who knocked down and robbed Mr. Thomas S. Josselyn in Charleston, Saturday evening, stimulated many to join in the search in every direction. Every road leading from Veazie was carefully watched, and other places where the fellow would be likely to go were scrutinized in the most thorough manner. City Marshal Bolton, of this city, learned yesterday afternoon that Smith was on the other side of the river going towards Holden, and he took a number of policemen and started in that direction, informing people on the road of the rascal's whereabouts. William Norwood, hostler of the Lake House in Dedham, on hearing Smith described, declared that he met a man corresponding with the description on the road not a great way off, and he at once started, saying he was "bound to have him."—Norwood started off, therefore, and soon after he came up with two men named Swett and Phillips, and sat down to talk with them. While they were talking Smith came in sight and they at once "gobbled" him after a sharp chase. Much credit is also due to Mr. Stinson, driver of the Ellsworth stage, who first gave the people in that region information of the character and identity of Smith, and afterwards left the stage to assist in the search.

They delivered him up to Major Bolton, who brought him to this city last night and lodged him in jail to await trial. On their way up, Smith, upon whom nearly $300 of the stolen money was found, made a full confession to the Major, and told where he had hidden the rest of the money and the papers taken from Mr. Josselyn's wallet. Major Bolton went to Veazie as soon as he handed Smith over to Jailor Whitney, and recovered the papers, among which are notes to the amount of some $1,300.

Smith looks not over 18 or 19 years old, is slight-built, short in stature, and no one would, from his appearance, suppose him to be so daring a villain.

Mr. Josselyn still continues in a very dangerous condition, and but slight hopes are entertained of his recovery.

MAINE BOARD OF AGRICULTURE.

FARMERS' CONVENTION.

LINCOLN, Sept. 19, 1870.

To the Editor of the Whig and Courier:

The Maine Board of Agriculture met in semi-annual session in the Town Hall at the village of Lincoln, Tuesday forenoon, and proceeded to arrange the business of the session and attend to the special business of the Board. Only a portion of the members of the Board are yet on the ground, but more are coming on each train, and the indications are that the meeting will be of much interest, as the questions which will come up for discussion and will be treated in the papers presented, are of special and vital importance to the farming interests of the State.

An informal discussion upon the question of the present condition and future prospects of the hay crop in Maine was participated in by most of the members of the Board.

The Farmers' Convention will formally open this afternoon with an address of welcome by W. R. Hersey, Esq., of Lincoln, after which the discussions and exercises will go forward in regular order.

The President and Faculty of the State College of Agriculture, with the students of the College, will come up to-morrow morning and remain during the session. B.

PRESIDENT GRANT AT CINCINNATI. President Grant reviewed the Zouave and colored battalions and the police and fire department at the Burnet House, Cincinnati, Tuesday morning. He received an address of welcome by Mayor Davis to which he replied briefly. At noon he was introduced on Change, when the President made a brief speech expressing his gratification at receiving such a reception, and especially because it was from the people of a great nation and not from those of a divided country.

THE SMALL POX IN LOWELL, MASS. The new Board of Health in Lowell, Mass., are at work in earnest and have called to their assistance some of the most able and efficient physicians in the city. A temporary hospital is to be constructed to accommodate patients with a large detail of special police to isolate cases as far as possible. The display of a red flag by day and red light by night to designate infectious places, is ordered. The citizens are inspired with confidence that the measures taken will prove successful in checking the fearful dissemination of the disease.

Mr. Newton Booth, the new Governor of California, formerly lived in Terre Haute, Indiana. When the news of the California election was received many of his old friends in that place held a meeting and sent the following dispatch to Mr. Booth: "Your old friends instruct us to congratulate you upon your success, the Republicans upon their triumph and the state upon having a governor who will preserve her honor as he always has his own." It is said that Mr. Booth will visit his old home in a few weeks. He will be inaugurated in December.

THE WALL STREET CONSPIRACY. The charge to the New York Grand Jury by Judge Bedford on the subject of an alleged conspiracy of Wall street brokers to affect the money market, and through that the business of the country, seems to have taken the "bulls" by surprise, if not literally "by the horns." They had combined to bull the gold market extensively by a lock-up of gold which should paralyze business and place the "bears" and the market at their mercy. But this charge of Judge Bedford has, it is said, fallen upon the clique like a thunder-clap, and disarranged their nice-laid schemes ere it was fairly ripe. Doubtless they will not attempt at present to carry out the programme.

UNIVERSALIST CONVENTION. The Universalist General Convention met at Philadelphia Tuesday morning. Rev. J. M. Pullman called the convention to order, and Rev. Dr. W. H. Ryder of Illinois was elected President, J. Smith Dodge Jr. of Connecticut, Vice President, Rev. J. M. Pullman of New York, permanent Secretary, D. L. Holden Esq. of New York Treasurer. Revs. Charles Fluker and J. B. Mayhew of New York were appointed Clerks. The Committee on Elections, religious services, unfinished business and nominations were appointed by the chair. The Secretary then stated that the constitution adopted at the last convention in Gloucester, Mass., had been ratified by a majority of State conventions and was now a law under which the convention was organized. The convention then took a recess until afternoon

THE NEVADA EXPLOSION.—An appeal for assistance has been made and money raised to send medicines to the people wounded at Pioche, Nevada, by the recent explosion.—The jury in the case of Ryan for murder, had been locked up two days when the fire occurred. The jury dispersed at the alarm, and one of them was killed by the explosion, so that a new trial is required.

LATEST NEWS IN BRIEF.

Jacob Farrington, a carpenter of Lowell, Mass., was seriously, if not fatally injured on Monday by falling six feet.

The selectmen of Milford, Conn., publish a certificate that the managers of O'Brien's Menagerie deny the reported starving of a boy in their troupe.

The examination of candidates for admission to the Naval Academy, commences on Wednesday and continues until the 30th inst. About 50 candidates are to be examined.

One of a party of drunken fishermen prowling through Portsmouth, was shot Sunday by a citizen and it is thought he was killed. His friends carried him off.

A circular from the Adjutant's-General's office reporting a list of casualties among the commissioned officers of the U. S. army for the week ending Sept. 16th, contains the following names: Prof. Dennis H. Mahan, drowned in the Hudson River; Maj. Samuel De Camp, died at Saratoga; 1st Lieutenant Wm. P. Parry, 15th infantry, died at Camp Douglas, Utah Territory.

NEW MAGAZINES.

HARPER for October has an interesting article on "The New York City Post Office," "Border Reminiscences" by Lieut. Marcy, a poem by Bayard Taylor, and another by Nasby entitled "Hannah Jane." "The Conquest of Ireland" shows us a page of History that will, we think, be new to most of its readers, while "By-Gone Celebrities of Bond Street, London," is a chapter of interesting reminiscences of the interesting people that we all like to hear about. BUSINESS ITEMS.

IMPORTANT NOTICE. From a Circular just issued by the Eminent Bankers, Messrs. JAY COOKE & Co., we make the following extracts relative to the exchanging of Government Bonds for railroad securities:

"The signal success of the New Five Per Cent Government Loan foreshadows the early funding of the entire public debt at less rate than 5 per cent., and indicates that the average rate of interest on loanable capital in this country will henceforward be considerably lower than it has been, the tendency being to an equalization of rates between America and Europe.

In view of these facts, the present holders of United States Five-Twenties must decide whether it is not best to make at once such a change of investment as will enable them to realize as profit, or add to their capital the present average premium of 14 per cent. on Five-Twenties, while at the same time largely increasing their annual income."

* * * * * * *

"These most unusual opportunities for the profitable conversion of Government Bonds into Corporate Securities of undoubted reliability cannot, in the nature of the case, long continue. The increasing abundance of loanable capital, both at home and abroad; the almost certain rise in value of all desirable railroad mortgages, and the early funding of the remainder of the National Debt at lower rates, promise very soon to change the entire aspect of the loan market, which is just now so peculiarly favorable to investors.

This state of things suggests prompt action on the part of those who wish to exchange securities in time to profit by the present high premium on Five-Twenties."

And in this connection it is important to say that THE OPPORTUNITY FOR EXCHANGING U. S. BONDS FOR THE BONDS OF THE EUROPEAN & NORTH AMERICAN RAILWAY COMPANY WILL SOON BE GONE! The entire amount of the issue ($2,000,000) is nearly all sold, and the balance is being absorbed very rapidly.

The wonderfully quick sales made of these Bonds, and the fact that Savings Banks and investors of large experience have bought great amounts for permanent investment, prove them to be the most popular investment of the kind now offering in this part of the country. Their many desirable features and thorough and unquestionable security recommend them far and wide.

The last rail on the E. & N. A. Railway will be laid this week!

The very limited amount of Bonds now remaining, and the prospect of an advance in price of these and similar first class securities, as foreshadowed in the Circular of Messrs. Jay Cooke & Co., make it apparent that parties wishing to avail of the opportunity to secure these Bonds at their present low price had better apply AT ONCE.

The holder of U. S. 6 per cent. Bonds receives but $60 per year in gold on each $1000 Bond, while by exchanging the same for E. & N. A. Bonds he can receive $75 per year in gold—equivalent to $84 in currency!

This is preferable to exchanging 5-20s for 4½ per cent. Bonds, even, and thereby receiving but $45 in gold per year.

The highest market price allowed for U. S. Bonds in exchange for E. & N. A. R. Bonds. Apply to ELIAS MERRILL, FIRST NATIONAL BANK, BANGOR, Principal Agent E. & N. A. Railway for sale of Bonds.

EXTRACTS FROM THE CALIFORNIA PRESS.

Dentistry.—Those of our readers who are so unfortunate as to require the aid of a dentist, should know where to go for the best work. We have no hesitation in saying that the operations performed by Dr. J. F. Babcock in all branches, cannot be surpassed here or elsewhere. We have examined, recently, some operations by Dr. Babcock, in which the root was built upon with solid gold, which for beauty, strength and durability of workmanship cannot be excelled.—[San Joaquin Republican.

Fine Work.—We noticed to-day in the show case of Dr. Babcock several very fine specimens of Dentistry. The art of building up and replacing decayed teeth with gold has been brought to great perfection by this gentleman. The specimens mentioned evince very superior workmanship.—[Stockton Evening Herald.

Beautiful operations.—Paying a visit upon Saturday last to the Dental Rooms of Dr. Babcock, we were permitted to examine some very large and exceedingly difficult gold fillings in the mouth of a patient then being operated upon. They were truly beautiful; and reflect the greatest credit upon the skill and ability of the operator, Dr. Babcock. We earnestly recommend him as standing high in the ranks of his profession.—[Stockton Daily Independent.

MUSTERED OUT.

BY REV. WM. E. MILLER.

Let me lie down,
Just there in the shade of this cannon-torn tree,
Here, low on the trampled grass, where I may see
The surge of the combat; and where I may hear
The glad cry of victory, cheer upon cheer!
Let me lie down!

Oh! it was grand!
Like the tempest we charged the triumph to share;
The tempest—its fury and thunder—was there:
On, on, o'er intrenchments, o'er living and dead,
With the foe under foot and our flag overhead;
Oh! it was grand!

Weary and faint,
Prone on the soldier's couch, ah! how can I rest
With this shot-shattered head and sabre-pierced breast?
Comrades at roll-call, when I shall be sought,
Say I fought till I fell where I fought,
Wounded and faint.

Oh! that last charge!
Right through the dread host tore shrapnel and shell,
Through without faltering—clear through with a yell,
Right in their midst, in the turmoil and gloom,
Like heroes we dashed, at the mandate of doom,
Oh! that last charge!

It was duty!
Some things are worthless; some others so good,
That nations who buy them pay only in blood,
For Freedom and Union each man owes his part,
And here I pay my share all warm from my heart;
It is duty!

Dying at last!
My mother, dear mother, with meek, tearful eye,
Farewell! and God bless you, forever and aye!
Oh! that I now lay on your pillowing breast,
To breathe my last sigh on the bosom first prest,
Dying at last!

I am no saint!
But, boys, say a prayer. There's one that begins;
"Our Father," and then says, "Forgive us our sins;"
Don't forget that part; say that strongly, and then
I'll try to repeat it, and you'll all say, "Amen!"
Ah! I'm no saint!

Hark! there's a shout!
Raise me up, comrades! We have conquered, I know!
Up, up on my feet, with my face to the foe!
Ah! there flies the Flag, its star-spangles bright,
The promise of glory, the symbol of right!
Well may they shout!

I'm mustered out!
God of our fathers! our freedom prolong,
And tread down rebellion, oppression and wrong!
O land of earth's hope! on thy blood-reddened sod,
I die for the Nation, the Union, and God!
I'm mustered out!

THE DISAPPEARANCE OF ROBERT FAIRWAY

A CALIFORNIA STORY.

I.

As Robert Fairway swung, with careless, yet graceful step down Main street, in the sunny little town of San Dioso, more than one of the dark eyed senoritas turned a laughing look toward him, for he was a handsome man; and as he crossed the Plaza into the more modern and American portion of the town, there were cheerful salutations and gentle good-mornings from the rosy damsels who were busy with their gardens at the time. Fairway bore the reputation of a lady's-man; and there were not wanting quiet little bits of gossip, and slyly told stories of his successes in the role of roue, to add that spice of danger to an acquaintance which young girls seem to love so well, and which, at the early day of which I write, was no bar to entrance into the best California society. Sauntering on, passing the hotel with its morning group of idlers, he turned up the steps of the first and only brick building in the village, and opening a door having on it a little tin sign which told of "Robert Fairway, Attorney and Counselor-at-law," walked in. The place was small, yet neatly fitted up and tidy. The carefully assorted papers on the table which served as a desk, the plain redwood shelves filled with well-kept volumes, the spotless floor, the straight white curtains, and the rose in a tumbler of water—all gave tokens of neatness, if not system. Throwing up the window—which opened upon a balcony—and lighting a fresh cigar, he sat, in the clear morning sunlight, to all outward appearance a man thoroughly satisfied with himself and all around him.

Yet this man was throwing his life away. He was letting a land-practice worth a competence slip through his fingers—was neglecting every interest intrusted to his care, until clients had dropped away from him one by one—was worse than wasting the best years of his life. Still, he was in no want of money. He always dressed well, and drove the best teams. When he reached into his pocket for the elegant little knife with which he trimmed his dainty nails, there always issued forth the music of jingling coins. His room-rent for the best parlor and bedroom at the widow's big house across the creek, and his board-bill at the best hotel, were paid to the hour. His purse was ever open to the call of friendship, or the cry of distress. Educated in the law in Louisiana, he had passed his examination—which, in that State, is rigid—with honor and credit. But he had also acquired there the seeds of the fatal passion which was now blighting his life; he was a gambler—and a successful one. Cool, clear-headed, and calculating, he had made the game of Poker his study, and had mastered it. Having cast his lot in life among the simple-minded and wealthy Spaniards of the old Mission of San Dioso, with whom gaming was the passion of their lives, he found ample means to gratify his taste. His office was a law-office but in name: the little back-room was the real workshop, and the blanket-covered table and a few chairs the tools. Here, night after night was spent in the game. Almost every man of any consequence in the town had, at some time or another, taken a seat at that table. Judges, merchants, rancheros, and doctors met there, with one common object. The games were fair and above-board; an ignominious exit would have been the fate of any one who should have dared to try any of the 'blacklegs' games there. All that was done or said at that board was on honor, and the play was a square contest of skill and nerve and pluck, while neither losses nor winning made any change in the courteous demeanor of the men who changed their gold there. One would hardly realize, as he sat there in the bright light of this morning, lazily puffing his cigar, that this man could have turned the whole current of his life into this channel.

A step on the stair started him from his reverie, as a tall, dark-skinned, black-haired son of Spain entered the room. "Caramba, but I envy you your nerves; here you look as fresh as a new-blown rose, and as clear as if you had slept the sleep of a baby instead of being up at that cursed game till daylight," broke out the new-comer, whose energetic salutation was received with a courtly smile by Fairway, who pushed a chair toward him, with a careless "O, it's nothing when you're used to it." The Spaniard, who was the heaviest and boldest ground about, took the proffered chair, and, producing his packet of cigarettes, proceeded to solace himself with the weed. Jose Alvido had become, upon the death of his father, sole heir to the vast grant of land, acquired under the old Spanish Government, known as the San Salicis Rancho, which subsequent litigation has made familiar to every one interested in the history of land matters in California. He had all the improvidence of the Spaniard; and, disdaining work, was the source of sustenance to the many human leeches who hung around the wealthy Spaniards at the time we speak of. Fairway was his legal adviser, as well as his boon companion; and although he would have spurned the imputation of dishonesty, was rapidly, and perhaps partly unconsciously, drawing him into the vortex which was destined to impoverish the one and enrich the other. Winning from him ready cash enough to keep his pockets lined with yellow twenties, he could well afford to take contingent fees of interests in his land in pay for such legal services as he rendered. Thus gaining a foothold on the estate, it requires no great amount of thought to enable the reader to comprehend the manner of his ultimate acquisition of a large part of it. Matters had reached very near this point on the morning of which I write. The night before had been passed in a game where stakes were high, and title-deeds formed the pool. But, as yet, these heavy losses and winnings were known only to the two parties interested. Fairway knew his man well enough to be content with the simple entry in his private memorandum-book of the acknowledgment of debt; and Alvido, in his simplicity, recognized such obligations as binding in honor, if not in law.

The meeting this morning had been arranged between the men for the purpose of straightening out and putting in legal shape these debts and conveyances. Books and papers were produced; and to Alvido's surprise, he found that fully one-half of his property would have to be conveyed away to clear up the accounts. He was moody and silent, as the lawyer, with quick professional skill, commenced to draw the proper conveyance for one undivided half of the estate; when suddenly drawing himself to his full height, his eyes flashing fire, and his quick-drawn breath betokening the violence of his agitation, he cried out: "Stop! I will make you a proposition. Half my estate belongs to you already. Draw that deed for the whole rancho. I will sign it, and we will play again for all or none. Fortune cannot always be against me, and I must surely win. What say you—my half against yours?" Fairway said nothing, but carelessly tearing the paper upon which he had been writing into ribbons, drew from his desk a fair sheet, and [illegible] for the whole right, title, and interest of Alvido in the San Salicis Rancho. There was a slight curl of triumph about the corners of his mouth, and a queer look in his eyes; but Alvido saw them not as he impatiently paced the room, consuming cigarettes at an enormous rate, giving occasional vent to an oath. When the paper was finished, Fairway put on his hat, and, stepping out, soon returned with a dapper little man, who combined the duties of chief engineer of the hardware, dry goods, and grocery establishment on the corner below with that of Notary Public, and in a few moments the signature and acknowledgment were perfected, and the deed which held the fortunes of the two men lay completed upon the table between them.

Not until the Notary had left the room did Fairway speak; but then, turning to Alvido, he said: "Now, Jose, I have drawn this thing as you wanted it, because I have no right to refuse your proposition. It lies there on the desk, and is your property. I advise you to take it and tear it up. Whatever comes of this business, you will remember that such was my advice. If you insist upon your proposal to play for it—my share against yours—I will do it, and I will win. —But I make one condition, without which I will not play."

"Name it," said the Spaniard, almost fiercely.

"It is, that we now and together mount our horses, and spend the day on the rancho. You shall ride over the place; we will dine, and smoke, and chat together there, to-day, as though there was not a card in the world. You shall see and realize what you are risking; and then, if, when we return, you still insist, we will play for this stake"—touching the paper lightly as he spoke.

In vain did the Spaniard urge and remonstrate. It soon became evident that Fairway was in earnest, and he gave a reluctant consent to the plan. A brisk ride of a few miles brought them to an adobe house, and, dismounting, they fastened their horses to a convenient rack, and entered the low-ceiled room. The furniture and fittings of the apartment gave no evidence of wealth or culture, although every thing was scrupulously clean. A large open fire-place occupied one end of the building, before which a young and rather pretty woman was dusting the ashes back with a goose-wing. This woman, whom the two men addressed as Delphina, rose at their coming, and, cordially shaking hands with the American, made some laughing remark in broken English, displaying, as she did so, a row of teeth that fairly glittered in their milky whiteness. Although not Alvido's wife, she passed for such, kept his house, and cooked his meals, appearing contented. Speaking to her in Spanish, Jose told her that they would be back to dinner, and going into the yard, soon returned with a pair of chickens which he had killed, and an armful of vegetables fresh from the ground. Short as was his absence, there had been time enough for the woman to ask, with a half-regretful, half-careless manner, "Have you been winning from him again?" To which Fairway replied, laughingly and evasively. With a look of quick contempt as she heard the approaching footsteps, she said, "If I was a man, you wouldn't twist me around your finger as you do him." But Alvido's return put a stop to the conversation; and after a few hurried directions, the two mounted their horses and started on their ride. For hours they rode on, side by side; the Spaniard, sullen and speechless; Fairway, on the contrary, seemed to have an unnatural flow of spirits. Nothing could discourage him. Reining in, once in awhile, at some point of observation, from which the goodly heritage could be seen to advantage, he would launch out into praises of its beauty and value, suggesting possible improvements, and speaking of the immense facilities it possessed. He spoke feelingly of the benefits of the possession of such a property, and talked of the folly of risking it. To do him justice, he exhausted every power of eloquence and persuasion to dissuade Jose from the venture he seemed bent on making. "One-half this place," said he, "in partnership with me, is all that you need to make you happy. I have business tact. I can make golden dollars grow on every blade of grass. Come, Jose, give up this notion. I will be your friend; and you will never regret the day. You can settle down then—marry Delphina." The Spaniard, whose face had begun to show signs of yielding until those words were spoken, turned on him then, and, with an oath, ground out between his teeth, exclaimed: "You are afraid to risk what you have already won. If the place is what you describe, why not own it all? You say you can. Are you a coward?" Except a whitening of the face, and a twitch around the corners of the mouth, Fairway exhibited no emotion, but simply said, "I have no more to say: to-night we play for this great stake; the loser has but himself to blame"—and turning their horses' heads, they spurred them to their utmost speed until they reached the house, where, seeing them properly bestowed, after refreshing themselves with a hearty wash, they lit their cigarettes, and took their places in the cool shadow of the porch to await the call for dinner. After eating, which was accompanied on the part of Jose with copious draughts of the powerful white wine of the old Mission orchards, they returned to the town, and at early candle-light the men, locked up in the little office, sat down to play.

The game chosen was the simple one known as "freeze-out," each taking one hundred beans. So skillful were the players that the night waned and morning began, and the chances were about equal. Still they played until at last Jose, putting up all his stock of chips, staked every thing upon his hand. Fairway covered the pile. Jose then exultingly threw down a full hand—three queens and a pair of sevens. His hand was outstretched to take up the deed, when Fairway, with a smile laid down four tens and, rising from the table, opened the window to let the morning air blow in upon their fevered brows. Jose sat like a man in a dream; and it was not until the clang of the iron door of the little safe in the corner of the room recalled him to the realization of the fact that the title to his lands had passed from him, and the evidence had been locked up by the owner, that he raised his head. Fairway walked to the mantel-piece, poured out a glass of wine, drank it off before he spoke, and then said: "Jose Alvido, yesterday you called me coward when I wanted to prevent what has just now happened. To-day I am richer by all your wealth, and have grown selfish in my riches. I have just made a promise to myself that I will never touch another card so long as I live. But you shall never want for anything which I can supply; and I hold myself bound to accede to any request you may ever make to me. Until such time as I may otherwise dispose of the property, you will continue to occupy it as you always have done." The Spaniard made no reply, but, with an attempt to seem careless, shrugged his shoulders, and jingling the coin in his pockets, threw on his cloak and hat, and quietly walked down the stairs. Fairway watched him from the window until he entered the Spanish gambling house across the Plaza, and then throwing himself upon a lounge, dropped asleep.

The next day the deed was placed on record, and in a few weeks it was known throughout the town that Fairway had sold the San Salicis Rancho to a New York company, and was going to San Francisco to live. Alvido had left and no one knew his whereabout. Gradually, the gossip ceased, and only a memory of the actors in this episode was left in San Dioso.

Robert Fairway was true to his resolution. Gathering about him his newly acquired wealth—for he realized a large sum by the sale of the Rancho—he invested largely in growing real estate in San Francisco. Freed from his cursed infatuation, he applied his mind to his profession. The study of criminal law became with him a passion, and in a few years he rose to the highest rank in the practice of that branch of the law. During this portion of his life I was intimate with him; and from a friendly letter dated at the hotel at Placerville, and written to fill in a leisure hour, I gather the main incidents narrated in the following chapter. He was sent for from far and near, and his fees were enormous; but he had the reputation of clearing his clients. He could sway juries by the torrent of his eloquence. In the prime of life he had attained the highest distinction. Already had his name been spoken of in connection with the highest offices in the gift of the people. Men looked up to him; crowds flocked to hear him; honors poured thick upon him. But one day he disappeared—went out from among the presence of men as though the earth had swallowed him—went out like a flame that is extinguished—and from that hour to this no man has known what became of him. Those who follow this history to its end will be the first to lift the veil of the seemingly impenetrable mystery that has surrounded his fate.

OF GOOD

Timber Land

For Sale at a Low Rate,

Situated on Moose River, in the town of Greig, Lewis County, New York.

Said timber consisting of White Hemlock, Spruce, Pine and Hardwood. The subscribers own two large tanneries, located on the aforesaid tract, which will consume the hemlock bark, thus enabling the land and timber to be purchased at a comparatively cheap rate. The timber is excellent in quality in all particulars. The aforesaid tract of land is easy of access, being only from six to fifteen miles from both the Black River R. R. and Black River Canal, which lead direct to the Albany Market. The land is comparatively level, well watered and good for farming purposes. Moose River, which extends through the tract, is a large stream and empties into Black River, where the aforesaid Canal leads into Black River. At this point or junction of the rivers, is a fall of sixty (60) feet, over which the waters of both rivers flow, thus forming an unlimited water power, (we might say right in the Canal and at the Depot,) to which Moose River will carry the immense amount of timber from the aforesaid lands.

Any parties desiring to manufacture lumber, will do well to give this rare opportunity their attention. The land and timber can be purchased at a cheap rate or the timber alone permitted.

BONDS

EUROPEAN AND NORTH AMERICAN RAILWAY CO.

THE E. & N. A. RAILWAY is completed from Bangor Maine, to St. John, New Brunswick, a distance of 202 miles,—with the exception of 58 miles between Winn, Me., and the boundary line of the State at Vanceboro'. On this portion the track is now being laid both from Winn, eastward and from Vanceboro' westward, and the work will be completed and trains running from Bangor to St. John in September next.

This road will then be

THE ONLY RAILWAY

CONNECTING THE UNITED STATES AND THE BRITISH PROVINCES (New Brunswick and Nova Scotia). The population of the maritime Provinces is about ONE MILLION, and all the land travel, freight, mails, &c., between them and the United States, will pass over this Trunk line, which is WITHOUT COMPETITION. Although not yet completed, the business of the road is already far greater than its most sanguine friends predicted; and is continually increasing.

The net earnings from Local Business alone, on the 56 miles completed in Maine, already exceed the interest on two and one quarter millions of dollars, and will be largely increased after Sept next by the business to and from the Provinces.

To complete this road, and to equip it as fully as its present large business and the immediate increase consequent upon its completion, require, the Company has issued its Bonds to the amount of Two Millions of Dollars, secured by a

FIRST & ONLY MORTGAGE

ON ITS ENTIRE ROAD AND PROPERTY FROM WINN TO VANCEBORO' (besides a Second Mortgage on the entire road and equipments from Bangor to Winn, 56 miles. This portion cost some $2,300,000, and the only lien thereon is a mortgage to the city of Bangor for $1,000,000)—and, in addition thereto, by a FIRST AND ONLY MORTGAGE on 800,000 Acres of Land!

Said lands being the same granted by the State of Maine to aid the construction of this road. They are situated along the Penobscot and St. John rivers, and are heavily timbered and valuable. Large tracts, especially in the fertile Aroostook Valley, (the finest agricultural district in the State,) are valuable for farming lands as well as for their timber. This immense grant of lands equals about

14,000 Acres to each Mile of Railroad with which they are mortgaged. They cover 1250 square miles (nearly as large as the State of Rhode Island, which is 1306 square miles,) and are of great value.

Thus, besides the mortgage of the Railway, its equipments, &c., which alone is ample security for the Bonds, there are timber and farm lands to the amount of also pledged to ensure the payment thereof.

400 ACRES TO EACH BOND

The Bonds are for $1000 each, due March 1, 1899, and bear interest at

Six Per Cent. Per Annum,

PRINCIPAL AND INTEREST PAYABLE IN

GOLD COIN,

Free from U. S. Taxation.

Coupons payable March 1 and September 1, in New York. Bonds registered if desired. Coupons made payable (£6 each) in London, England, if preferred.

SINKING FUND.—All proceeds of sales of land, as well as of timber and other products therefrom, are, by the Trustees, to be invested in these Bonds if they can be bought at par or less; otherwise in United States, State or Municipal Securities. And on July 1, 1879, and annually thereafter until these Bonds become due or are all paid, the E. & N. A. Railway Co. is bound to pay to the Trustees a sum of money equal to one per cent. of the amount of Bonds outstanding. Such amounts, and all interest received on securities belonging to the SINKING FUND are to be invested as above stated, and these accumulations are solely for the purpose of additionally providing for the redemption of these Bonds. The Sinking Fund constitutes a third great element of security and strength, and adds to the safety of these Bonds.

The Trustees are Hon. HANNIBAL HAMLIN, of Bangor, Me., and J. EDGAR THOMSON, Esq., of Philadelphia, Pa.

The Trustees are authorized to receive the Bonds at Par and Accrued Interest in payment for any of the lands at their appraised value.

These very desirable securities for sale at

90 AND ACCRUED INTEREST IN CURRENCY

U. S. Bonds and all marketable securities received at highest market price in exchange for these Bonds, and can be sent by Express and these returned by Express, free of expense to the purchaser.

☞ On completion (in 1872) of 60 miles of Railroad now building, between St. John, N. B. and Halifax, N. S. there will be an unbroken line of Railway from Halifax to all the chief cities of the United States, and as two or three days of ocean travel can be avoided, and about 36 hours' time saved, from New York, in going to or coming from Europe, by rail to or from Halifax, a large business in passengers, mails and freight will thereby be added to the traffic over the E. & N. A. Railway.

JAMES A. JACKSON & CO.—I have examined the formula for making the "Home Stomach Bitters," and used them in this hospital the last four months. I consider them the most valuable tonic and stimulant now in use.

S. H. MELCHER.
Resident Physician in charge U. S. Marine Hospital.

JAMES A. JACKSON & CO.—Gentlemen: As you have communicated to the medical profession the recipe of the "Home Bitters" it cannot, therefore, be considered as a patent medicine, no patent having been taken for it. We have examined the formula for making the "Home Bitters," and unhesitatingly say the combination is one of rare excellence, all the articles used in its composition are the best of the class to which they belong, being highly tonic, Stimulant, Stomachic, Carminative, and slightly Laxative. The mode of preparing them is strictly in accordance with the rules of pharmacy. Having used them, seen its effects in our private practice, we take pleasure in recommending them to all persons desirous of taking Bitters, as being the best Tonic and Stimulant now offered to the public.

VEGETABLE

Sherry Wine Bitters.

THE BEST MEDICINE IN THE WORLD.

Purely Vegetable, and will not intoxicate.

Diploma awarded by the Mass. Charitable Mechanic Association, A. D. 1866.

Composed of Dock Root, Sarsaparilla, Rock Rose, Wintergreen, Dandelion, Wild Cherry, Thoroughwort, Prickly Ash, Poplar Bark, Rhubarb, etc. For Weakness, Loss of Appetite, Jaundice, Headache, Sour Stomach, Piles of long standing, Humors, and all Diseases which arise from an unhealthy state of the Stomach, Bowels, and Blood, for which valuable Roots and Herbs, and the knowledge of their great service to suffering humanity, man cannot feel too thankful to Him who wisely provided us with all things.

TO ALL PERSONS,

BOTH SICK AND WELL.

If a Long Life of Health and Happiness is desired, let these Bitters be taken, particularly in the Spring and Warm Seasons of the year, and especially by the following classes of people:—The MECHANIC, who, from his constant indoor labors, not having sufficient access to the bracing and refreshing air out of doors, becomes weakened at the stomach, nervous, pale and sickly, his food not nourishing nor properly digesting. He should take these Bitters, and freely too, in order to get his system up right and strong, and in prime condition to go through the warm weather in good shape with his constant daily labors. The exhilarating and cleansing power of the Dock Root, Dandelion, Poplar, and Prickly Ash Bark, is what will bring him up, and make him, physically speaking, once more a man! The MILL OPERATIVE will find this Medicine the very thing to cleanse the blood and strengthen the system, and very mild and pleasant to take. The PALE AND ONCE BEAUTIFUL LADY has but to take this compound freely, and she will be speedily restored to health, beauty and buoyancy. The HONEST FARMER, the CLERGYMAN and LAWYER, and MEN OF SEDENTARY HABITS—this is your Medicine! After once using it, you will never be without it. It will improve you twenty-five per cent. The MARINER will find it the best medicine in the world for his use; it makes him, while at sea, hearty and rugged, and capable of great endurance and exposure; and when on shore, it renovates his blood, and restores and repairs his system.

The Largest Bottle, the Lowest Price, and the most Effectual Remedy in the World.

INVESTMENT SECURITIES

JAY COOKE & CO. are now selling and recommend as a profitable and safe investment for all classes, the First Mortgage 7-30 Gold Bonds of the Northern Pacific Railroad Company. They have 30 years to run, bear Seven and Three-Tenths per cent gold interest (more than 8 per cent. currency), and are secured by first and only mortgage on the ENTIRE ROAD AND ITS EQUIPMENTS, and also, as fast as the Road is completed, on 23,000 Acres of Land to every mile of track, or 500 acres for each $1,000 Bond. They are exempt from U. S. tax, principal and interest are payable in gold. Denominations—Coupons, $100 to $1000; Registered, $100 to $10,000.

Northern Pacific 7-30's are at all times receivable at TEN PER CENT. ABOVE PAR, in exchange for the Company's lands at their lowest cash price.

The proceeds of all sales of lands are required to be devoted to the re-purchase and cancellation of the First Mortgage Bonds of the Company. The Land Grant of the Road exceeds Fifty Million Acres in the most fertile portion of the Northwest, and the demand for the Company's lands for settlement already exceeds the ability of the Government to complete the surveys. The immense Sinking Fund will undoubtedly cancel the principal of the Company's bonded debt before it falls due.

Holders of U. S. Five-Twenties, who wish to convert them into a first-class railroad security can do so at a present profit of about 15 per cent., while increasing their interest income nearly one-fourth, by exchanging them for Northern Pacific 7-30's.

All marketable stocks and bonds will be received in exchange, free of express charges, at their highest current price. Full information, maps, pamphlets, etc., will be furnished on application to any agent for the Loan, or to JAY COOKE & CO., New York, Philadelphia, or Washington.
